Remarks from Fr. Michael

Christmas 2017

Dear Friends in the Lord,

In our society we are witnessing an unprecedented progress in the digital world, internet, social media, science, medicine, other technologies and civilization. One concern that we may ask ourselves is among all these wonderful accomplishments and comforts do we really need Christ? The response is that especially in today’s society, we need Christ, for with all comforts and abundances we have the abundance and perverseness of evil.

Today the totality of the human race is threatened. Values and principles are not kept. The faith is shaken. The “nones*” have risen to 30% now. The family is disturbed. The truth is distorted. The authority falls. The light is darkened. The freedom is lost. The sense of responsibility withdraws. The personality is disappearing along with the bashfulness.

Today, humanity lives in loneliness and in isolation. The soul of humanity is in challenge, today. Who is going to redeem us from this tragedy of our society? CHRIST. Today we desperately need Christ. We need Him to make us innocent like the small children. We need Him to refill our hearts with the truth and love. We need Christ so that internet, social media, science, technology and civilization may be used and applied correctly.

The science, the internet and the civilization without Christ do not delete evil. Perhaps they make it more treacherous.

Indeed, inside us there is the sense of seeking and longing for something more. When we turn ourselves, not considering Christ, to every direction of the abundance in our society we feel that inside we are not pleased, we are not filled, and we are not satisfied. The reason is that our soul, our existence thirsts for Christ. Our soul looks for Him. Though in many cases, we do not acknowledge it.

Do you think that this Christmas will offer the possibility and the opportunity for our redemption of our hunger and thirst by meeting the Divine Infant? We need Him.

Let us seek and pursue to renew ourselves with the Sacrament of Holy Confession, coming regularly to Church, fasting, praying, reading the Holy Bible. So that we may receive and meet Christ singing the triumphant Christmas Biblical Hymn, “Glory to God in the highest and peace on earth goodwill towards men.”

“Blessed Christmas to you and to your families and to all.” Amen.

With love in our Savior Christ,

Fr. Michael Varvarelis
Cathedral Dean

*The “nones” are people who are atheists or agnostics and say their religion is “nothing in particular”.
Χριστούγεννα 2017

Ευλαβείς Ενορίτες,

Σήμερα είμαστε μάρτυρες στήν κοινωνία μας μιάς πρωτοφανούς προοδόου στα ηλεκτρονικά, στο διαδίκτυο, στα μέσα μαζικής ενημέρωσης, στις επιστήμες, στην εικονική, στον πολιτισμό, στις τέχνες. Να ρωτήσουμε: Μέσα σ’ αυτά τα μεγέθη και τά ύψη έχουμε ανάγκη από τόν Χριστό;

Η απάντηση είναι ότι και βέβαια έχουμε και μάλιστα στή σημερινή κοινωνία πού μέ τόσες αφθονίες έχουμε και τήν αφθονία του κακού.

Σήμερα απειλείται τό σύνολο τής ανθρωπότητος. Οι αρχές δέν τηρούνται. Η πίστη κλονίζεται, η οικογένεια διασαλεύεται, η αλήθεια διαστρέφεται, η αυθεντία περικύκλωσε, το φώς συσκοτίζεται, η ελευθερία χάνεται. Τό αίσθημα τῆς ευθύνης υποχωρεί. Εξαφανίζεται η προσωπικότητα μαζί καί τη ντροπή.

Η ανθρωπότητα σήμερα ζή τή μοναξία τής καί τήν ερημιά τής. Κρίνεται η ψυχή τής. Ποιός θα μάς λυτρώσει από αυτή τή τραγικότητα τής κοινωνίας μας; Ο ΧΡΙΣΤΟΣ. Σήμερα λοιπόν, μάς χρειάζεται, οποσδήποτε, ο Χριστός. Μάς χρειάζεται γιά νά μάς κάνει αθώος σάν τά μικρά παιδιά. Μάς χρειάζεται γιά νά μάς ξαναγεμίσει τήν καρδιά με αλήθεια καί με αγάπη. Μάς χρειάζεται ο Χριστός ώστε νά χρησιμοποιηθεί σωστά τό διαδύκτυο, τα μέσα μαζικής ενημέρωσης, η επιστήμη, η τέχνη, ο πολιτισμός.

Η επιστήμη καί ο πολιτισμός, χωρίς τόν Χριστό, δέν αφαιρούν τό κακό. Ισώς νά τό κάνουν πιο ύπουλο.

Υπάρχει η αίσθηση αναζητήσεως μέσα μας γιά κάτι περισσότερο καί όταν στρεφόμαστε μονομερώς δίχως τόν Χριστό σέ κάθε κατεύθυνση πού η πληθώρα τής κοινωνίας σήμερα μάς προσφέρει δέν γεμίζουμε, δέν χαιρόμαστε, δέν ικανοποιούμαστε. Η αιτία είναι ότι η ψυχή μας, τό είναι μας, η ύπαρξη μας διηγά γιά τόν Χριστό. Αυτόν αναζητά. Όμως μερικές φορές δέν το εντοπίζουμε.

Μήπως τούτα τά Χριστούγεννα θα προσφέρουν καί σέ μάς τήν ευκαιρία καί τή δυνατότητα νά λυτρωθούμε από τήν πείνα καί τή δίψα μας μας συναντώντας τό Θείο Βρέφος; Μάς χρειάζεται.

Μέ τό μυστήριο τής Ιεράς Εξομολογήσεως, μέ τόν Εκκλησιασμό, μέ τήν νηστεία, μέ τήν προσευχή ας επιδιώκουμε νά αναγεννηθούμε καί νά δεχθούμε τόν Χριστό μέ τόν δοξολογικό Χριστουγεννιάτικο ύμνο «Δόξα εν υιός τού Θεού καί επί γής ειρήνη εν ανθρώποις ευδοκία.»

«Χρόνια Πολλά!» «Καλά καί Αγιά Χριστούγεννα» Αμήν.

Μέ αγάπη εν τό Σωτήρι Χριστώ,

π. Μιχαήλ Ε. Βαρβαρέλης

Dear Parishioners:

November 19th was Stewardship Sunday. Jimmy Senos spoke to the congregation about our progress in 2017 and the importance of making a timely commitment in 2018.

A few months ago, I watched a movie with a Christian theme. In the movie, the main character gives a talk to the congregation in which she tells them that God commands us to love our neighbors, but then He picks our neighbors for us. Our neighbors are our church community - our parish.

It occurs to me that while we talk about Stewardship as giving our time, talent and treasure, we should also talk about it as LOVE. Stewardship is our expression of love for our church. When we say we love our church, it's not the building, the marble, the wood, or the icons we love - but rather our neighbors who make up our church community.

When you give your time, talent and treasure, it's important you do so with love. Love for your Priest. Love for your Psalti. Love for your Choir. Love for your Sunday School and Greek School teachers. Love for your Parish Council. Love for all of those who volunteer for our Festival.

Remember, God does not suggest it, He commands it.

I'd like to wish you and your families a Merry Christmas!

Yours in Christ.

GOYA

The GOYAns have had FUN this fall! In October, many GOYAns participated in the basketball tournament held at Saint Sophia’s in Washington, D.C. Congrats to our Boys’ B team for making it to the playoffs! Archbishop Demetrios, Geron of America, was at Saint Sophia’s to celebrate the Divine Liturgy of the Ayia Skepi (Holy Protection) of the Theotokos, and the Doxology of OHI Day. He greeted the GOYAns from all of the participating Churches and took a photo with them.

In November, several GOYAns attended a
Fall Retreat on the weekend of November 17 at Camp Nazareth. A great time was had by all who attended.

GOYA would like to thank Mrs. Stamos and Mrs. Giannakopoulos for helping them with their baklava fundraiser. Over 100 orders were sold and prepared.

On December 2nd, there will be an Eastern Region GOYA Pilgrimage to Holy Protection Monastery ("Agia Skepi"). GOYAns and their families are welcome to come. For us here in Camp Hill, we will all meet at the Cathedral at 8:00 and leave at 8:15, or you can meet at the Monastery by 10:00 am. CHURCH LENDING LIBRARY

The church library contains information about Orthodoxy and Greece for you and your children. If you would like to borrow a book, fill out the information sheet found in the Library notebook binder. When you return it, be sure to list the date returned by your original sign in. Keep the books as long as you like; just be sure to return them within a reasonable amount of time so that your fellow parishioners may read them as well. Thank you.

HOLY TRINITY BOOKS & GIFTS

On behalf of the parish’s bookstore, Jim and Kiki want to wish “Merry Christmas and Happy New Year” to all parishioners. The Christmas holidays will be upon us before we know it. We are again offering a number of Christmas related items, including ornaments, cards and others. Many of our items would also be ideal for gift-giving to family and friends. If we do not have an item you are looking for, we will gladly special order it so that you have it for Christmas.

We provide books to increase your understanding of our Orthodox faith and practices. We also provide additional items such as icons, censers, charcoal and incense for your household use. All proceeds from the bookstore either go directly back into the bookstore or into the parish. We have recently received two different CD’s that have Byzantine chants in Greek and English. We are also constantly adding new book titles to our excellent collection of Orthodox books. We have the wine that is used for communion available to purchase and donate to Father Michael for use during communion. We will shortly be adding “light” olive oil for donation. We can also special order books, icons and other items that are not normally stocked in the bookstore.

Holy Trinity Books and Gifts’ normal operating hours are following the Divine Liturgy on Sunday, Thursdays from 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM and the first Tuesday of the Month from 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM. For more information or special requests, contact Jim and Kiki Lloyd (email: bookstore@holytrinityhbg.org or call 717-737-0952.

CONCERNED MOTHERS GROUP

The goal of the group is to foster spiritual dialogue among mothers in our community in regards to raising our children in an Orthodox Christian home. We can all probably list many challenges we've faced as our children have journeyed through preschool to high school.

The topics of the group will focus on making Orthodoxy a practical, living experience in our daily lives. Father Michael is leading the group. We meet in the Library monthly. Please join us. Next meeting will be in January 2018. Please see the Sunday bulletin for further details.

ELDER IAKOVOS (TSALIKIS) OF EVIA CANONIZED
BY CONSTANTINOPLE

Constantinople, November 27, 2017

The Holy Synod of the Ecumenical Patriarchate resolved today to officially number the blessed Elder Iakovos (Tsalikis) of Evia among the saints of God.

The meeting was chaired by His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew.

St. Porphyrios said of the late Elder Iakovos, “Mark my words. He’s one of the most far-sighted people of our time, but he hides it to avoid being praised.”

He lived for the Divine Liturgy, which he celebrated every day, with fear and trembling, dedicated and, literally, elevated. Young children and those with pure hearts saw him walking above the floor, or being served by holy angels. As he himself told a few people, he served together with Cherubim, Seraphim and the saints. During the Preparation, he saw angels of the Lord taking the portions of those being remembered and placing them before the throne of Christ, as prayers. When, because of health problems he felt weak, he would pray before the start of the Divine Liturgy and say, “Lord, as a man I can’t, but help me to celebrate.” After that, he said, he celebrated “as if he had wings.”

He was a wonderful spiritual guide, and through his counsel thousands of people returned to the path of Christ. He loved his children more than himself. It was during confession that you really appreciated his sanctity. He never offended or saddened anyone. He was justly known as “Elder Iakovos the sweet.”

He always had the remembrance of death and of the coming judgement. Indeed, he foresaw his death. He asked an Athonite hierodeacon whom he had confessed on the morning of November 21, the last day of his earthly life, to remain at the monastery until the afternoon, in order to dress him. While he was confessing, he stood up and said, “Get up, son. The Mother of God, St. David, St. John the Russian and St. Iakovos have just come into the cell.” “What are they here for, Elder?” “To take me, son.” At that very moment, his knees gave way and he collapsed. As he’d foretold, he departed “like a little bird.” With a breath like that of a bird, he departed this world on the day of the Entry of the Mother of God. He made his own entry into the kingdom of God. It was 4:17 in the afternoon.

His body remained supple and warm, and the shout which escaped the lips of thousands of people: “Saint! You’re a saint,” bore witness to the feelings of the faithful concerning the late Elder Iakovos. Now, after his blessed demise, he intercedes for everyone at the throne of God, with special and exceptional confidence. Hundreds of the faithful can confirm that he’s been a benefactor to them.

The memory of Elder Iakovos will be celebrated on November 22.

AHEPA WISHES KALO MINA OF DECEMBER

Ahepa Chapter #64 of Harrisburg, PA held its November Dinner-Meeting at the Tavern On The Hill where 60 Ahepans gathered for an evening of fine dining and fellowship. These Ahepans were treated to an entree of their particular choice consisting of either Filet Mignon, Lamb Shiskebob, Chicken Proschuitto, or the Fish of the Day. This was provided by the distinguished host Evangelos Daskalakis who was recommended by the previous owner Ahepan brother Kostantinos Giannaris. These entrees were accompanied by a delicious bowl of Greek-lemon soup (avgolemono), a Greek salad, a scrumptious dessert, along with soft rolls and refreshing drinks. Secretary Steve Nicholas and Treasurer Paul Giannaris greeted the Ahepans as they entered this fun-filled night of laughter and fellowship. Along with making their entree choices, many Ahepans took the initiative in making their annual 2018 dues payments. Membership/Steering Committee Chairman Dr. Michael Billys and President Dimitri Zozos also greeted the Ahepans, as they settled into a brief cocktail hour which preceded the dinner. This Dinner-Meeting at The Tavern On The Hill was extremely well prepared by our host and his staff who cooked and delivered a superb menu full of absolutely scrumptious entrees for his guests. The servers and other staff were simply outstanding as all who attended were both very pleased and stuffed to the gills!

President Zozos welcomed all guests and hosts to an evening of fellowship and inspiration hosted by the Ahepa Chapter #64 of Harrisburg who offered the meeting for both fellowship and fine dining pleasure. President Zozos then introduced Father Michael Varvarelis who led the group with The Lord's Prayer. Fr. Michael then blessed the food and drink along with expressing a warm greeting to the 60 Ahepans who were in attendance. Fr. Michael then reflected upon how important the Ahepa has been to the Archdiocese and our particular community of the Holy Trinity Cathedral. Many distinguished guests were present from the community which included members of many various groups from the church. This prestigious gathering of men then took part in the festivities which included a recitation of a speech delivered by a special guest from Dr. Billys. Dr. Billys introduced a special guest who is a middle school student along with his parents. Prithvi Sudhakar then delivered an amazing speech focused about our American veterans. Prithvi quoted Thucydides, a Greek historian, who said “The bravest are surely those who have the clearest vision of what is before them, glory and danger alike, and yet not withstanding go out and meet it.” Prithvi continued speaking very eloquently about the significance of American Patriotism and specifically ‘Veterans Day’. He ended his speech quoting Winston Churchill who reflected about only 1% of the population actually serve in the military “Never in the field of human conflict was so much owed by so many to so few.” Prithvi said he was thrilled and honored to receive a commemorative plate from the Ahepa Chapter #64 for his most enlightening and informative speech.

Dr. Michael Billys, Membership/Steering Committee Chair, was then introduced by President Zozos for an update on current events concerning the Chapter. Dr. Billys proceeded with an informative update on various enterprises concerning the local Chapter. Dr. Billys announced the various Ahepans who have contributed in the ‘special renovation’ project for the Ahepa Room and its progress thus far. He then reflected upon the special significance for this particular early November event to honor the Ahepa veterans either who are present or are no longer with us that have served in the military either here in the USA and presented a list of those who have served and are a part of our community. Dr. Billys noted that we recently honored the veterans during the commemoration of this past October 28th "OXI" Day and the most reverent occasion of our American "Veterans" Day which began at the turn of the century at the end of WWI and was originally called Armistice Day.

Secretary Nicholas then presented brother Nick Theofanis with a special recognition plaque for his "Unsung Hero" work throughout the years as our highly cherished photographer not only for Ahepa Chapter #64 but also the entire Holy Trinity community. This served as another highlight in the evening as Brother Nick was emotionally taken by this auspicious honor and was visibly moved by the recognition. Nick was so surprised he blurted out "Is this a joke?" as everyone laughed with enthusiasm!

Brother Nicholas then introduced Congressman George W. Gekas who introduced the keynote speaker of the evening Senator John DiSanto who gave an inclusive overview of his personal inspiration to become a public servant for the people of his jurisdiction. He has been instrumental in many large-scale philanthropic initiatives, including the construction of the new Bishop McDevitt High School, along with the building and rehabilitating of homes for Habitat for Humanity. Senator DiSanto has actively supported educational programs, youth athletics, and many charitable causes in our local communities. His presentation was highly enthusiastic and informative citing the many issues concerning the citizens of Pennsylvania but most specifically Dauphin County. Senator DiSanto entertained some questions from the brothers and was widely applauded for his honesty concerning the issues. Fr. Michael Varvarelis then offered the closing prayers while commenting how significant this Ahepa Chapter #64 has been to our community from its inception until the present day!

ADVERTISING IN THE SOURCE

In an effort to contain printing costs for monthly newsletters, many churches have turned to paid advertisements in their publications. Parish Council has agreed to adopt this funding source for our monthly publication. Doing this would help lessen and possibly erase the expense of publishing the Source.

We now have availability for two pages of paid ads in our monthly Source. The ad price will represent a year of advertising or 11 issues as we combine the June and July Source into one issue. Ads are sold by the block. There will be room for 24 ads or blocks per page. You may purchase more than one block for increased space and presentation. The cost of one ad block is $125 per year, and subsequent blocks would be an additional $100 per block. For example, a business card ad would equal two blocks and would cost $225. Camera-ready ads are appreciated but not required.

Please help us promote this program. If you own or work for a business that may be interested in advertising in our Source which is sent out to over 600 families, please contact Mary in the church office. If you know of a business that may be a potential advertiser, please pass on a contact and phone number. Examples of businesses that may be interested in advertising could be Greek bands, importers, baptismal supplies/clothing stores, and jewelers specializing in crosses. Other possibilities could be lawyers, accountants, real estate agents, etc. The only ads we cannot accept are ones pertaining to credit cards, travel, or insurance.

Please contact the church office as soon as possible if interested in this program.
